 The Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland was established Sept. 3, 1953. The constituent members of the Federation were Rhodesia, Southern; Rhodesia, Northern; and Nyasaland. The Federation was dissolved Dec. 31, 1963, and the former members reverted briefly to territorial status.
 Rhodesia, Northern became an independent republic on Oct. 24, 1964 and changed its name to Zambia.
 Nyasaland became an independent republic on July 1, 1964, and changed its name to Malawi. Rhodesia, Southern, reverted to the status of a self-governing member of the British Commonwealth and in Oct. 1964, dropped the Southern from its name to become Rhodesia. The works issued by these countries are entered under the name used at the time of publication.
